

ShareView Privacy Policy

Last updated: (09/16/2019)

TEKVOX, Inc. ("us", "we", or "our") operates ShareView (the "App"). This page informs you of our policies regarding the collection, use and disclosure of Personal Information we receive from users of the App.

Information Collection And Use

We collect no personally identifying information from users of the App. The only information the App collects is for identifying video and audio devices used with the App. This information is stored locally on the user's computer and is never sent out to us or any Third-Parties.

Required Permissions

In order for the App to function properly access to the user's camera and microphone is required. The app does not record any video or audio from these devices.

Security

The security of your Personal Information is important to us, but remember that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Changes To This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy is effective as of (09/16/2019) and will remain in effect except with respect to any changes in its provisions in the future, which will be in effect immediately after being posted on this page.

We reserve the right to update or change our Privacy Policy at any time and you should check this Privacy Policy periodically. Your continued use of the Service after we post any modifications to the Privacy Policy on this page will constitute your acknowledgment of the modifications and your consent to abide and be bound by the modified Privacy Policy.

In the event that changes are made to the privacy policy, a notification will be placed on the App's Microsoft Store page, and the link to the privacy policy will be updated to match the most recent version.
